

Mrs. J. B. Tappan, of Yuma county, is visiting the family of Harry Fulton.

B. M. Spencer came in from Los Angeles on Tuesday, and will remain here several weeks.

S. H. Fulton, an elder brother of Harry Fulton, is seriously ill at the residence of the latter.

For sale—Two gentle burros broke to ride, drive or pack. Apply to John Chisholm at stone quarry. *

Three carloads of the Twenty-fifth regulars, colored, passed through here yesterday on their way to Manila.

Wool is now in demand. Dent & Sayer disposed of a portion of their clip at 11 cents per pound, yesterday.

Mrs. C. W. Davis and son Norton were passengers on No. 1 Sunday on their way from the east to Bellemont.

Miss Ella Hauxhurst of Tempe has been employed by the trustees of Summit district to teach the summer school.

Governor Murphy passed through here yesterday on his way to Las Vegas to attend the reunion of the Rough Riders.

J. J. Donahue has received the iron for the front of his two story building. The glass and cornice will be here next week.

Dr. W. S. Robinson and B. F. Doney left Thursday on a trip to the Little Colorado River. They expect to be away four or five days.

C. O. Anderson, editor of the Holbrook Argus, was in town Monday. He expects to celebrate the Fourth in Flagstaff.

Mrs. J. Ernest Walker died at Phoenix on Tuesday. The cause of her death is said to have been blood poison. Mr. and Mrs. Walker spent the summer here two years ago and during their stay here they made many friends who will hear with regret the death of Mrs. Walker.

Sixty school teachers from eastern points are expected here next Thursday. They will visit the Grand Canyon and will probably make a three days stay there.

Burton Mossman, manager of the Aztec Cattle Company, accompanied by his sister Miss Lettie, came up from Winslow Monday. They were visitors to the Grand Canyon this week.

E. G. Frankenburgh, one of the pioneers of Arizona was dragged to death by a horse the other day at his ranch near Tempe. He was a native of Ohio, and located in Arizona many years ago.

Maj. J. H. McClintock spent Wednesday here. He was on his way to Las Vegas to attend the first annual reunion of the Rough Riders, or more properly the First U. S. Volunteer Cavalry.

Dr. Morrison, wife and children, of Los Angeles, Cal., registered at the Bank Hotel Thursday. They will visit the Grand Canyon this week. Dr. Morrison is the Santa Fe surgeon at Los Angeles.

A. B. Zeckendorf, one of the oldest postal clerks on the route between Albuquerque and Los Angeles, is in town this week. He was badly shaken up in the recent wreck at Gallup and is taking a layoff in order to recover. Mr. Zeckendorf is an Arizona boy and his home is in Tucson.

James Kirk, an employee of the Arizona Lumber & Timber Company, died Thursday night from an injury received three weeks ago. He was struck above the eye by a small piece of board which was thrown back from the saw. He was a single man and relatives live in Ohio. The funeral occurred from the Catholic church this morning.